

FCDCP PRIVACY POLICY

Fairfield Center for disAbilities and Cerebral Palsy, Inc. (FCDCP) knows that you care how information about you is used and shared, and we appreciate your trust that we will do so carefully and sensibly. This notice describes our privacy policy. By visiting www.fcdcp.org you are accepting the practices described in this Privacy Notice.

THE SIMPLE VERSION

We use your contact information for in-house purposes only, and do not share any information about you with third parties. Registration and purchases made through our website also may opt you into our e-newsletters, from which you're able to unsubscribe at any time. We think, though, that you'll like them quite a bit.

WHAT PERSONAL INFORMATION DOES FCDCP GATHER?

Information You Give Us

We receive and store any information you enter on our website or give us in any other way. This includes subscriptions to our e-Newsletter or donating to us, or submitting a form (such as a comment) on our website. We ask for personal information so that we can fulfil your request and return your message. If you choose not to provide any of that information, we may not be able to fulfil your request, but you will still be free to browse the other sections of the websites owned and administered by FCDCP.

From time to time, we will send you e-mail announcements on new features and services from the FCDCP and selected advertisers and affiliates. We limit the amount of advertising you receive. Some demographic data, volunteered through our annual surveys, is used statistically to provide our advertisers with an accurate profile of our overall readership. We never make any personal data collected from these surveys available to a third party.

Email Communications

We publish the FCDCP e-Newsletter on a monthly basis. The e-newsletter is distributed by email, although back issues may also be viewed on our website. You may subscribe to or unsubscribe from the email list at any time. Occasionally we may send announcements about FCDCP events to the mailing list. We do not rent our email list, although we may occasionally send an announcement, event or product offering that we think may be of interest on behalf of a partner.

Social Media & Comments

FCDCP uses social media such as website comments, and networks like Facebook and Twitter to engage readers in dialogue. As mentioned above, FCDCP makes use of data collected via these functions on our website. On other networks, we abide by the terms and conditions of that website/service, and reserve the right to use those networks for marketing purposes. Comments made on fcdcp.org account are reviewed and published at our discretion, and through the use of these functions, you accept that FCDCP is permitted to edit, moderate, and re-use comments for in-house promotional materials. Promotions and advertising are not permitted in this medium, nor is derogatory or hateful speech.

Automatic Information

When you visit any of our websites, our servers make a log of basic information corresponding to the sites and pages you have visited. At this time our general website does not use cookies (alphanumeric identifiers that can be stored by a visitor's browser to identify them on a future visit, or during a single visit), but they are used on our ordering website to keep track of the items in your shopping cart.

How Secure Is Information about Me?
